A Warm Discussion in the Encampment.

> Veterans Pass a Resolution Sustaining Tanner.

Asking a Full Inquiry Into the Charges Against Him. The Sham Battle on Lake Michigan

A Spectacle of Surpassing Magnificence-Many Thou-

By Telegraph to The Times.
MILWAUKEE, Aug. 29.—[By the Asso ated Press.] At this morning's session of the National Encampment the election of officers was completed. Dr. Horace P. Porter of Kansas was chosen Surgeon-General; W. H. Childers of Kentucky, Chap-lain; T. J. Lovett of New Jersey, Junior

The encampment refused to recognize the Sons of Veterans as auxiliary to the G.A.R. because of a disturbing faction.

Instead of giving the two women's organizations, the Loyal Ladies' of the G.A.R. and the Woman's Relief Corps, a formal indorsement, which would be contrary to the rules, it was recommended that the en-campment bid them Godspeed in their

TANNER'S COURSE SUSTAINED. TANNER'S COURSE SUSTAINED.

The chief event of the day was a red hot time over resolutions indorsing Pension Commissioner Tanner. Perkins of Kansas introduced a resolution beartily thanking the administration of President Harrison for the honor it has conferred on the Grand Army in appointing Corporal Tanner as Pension Commissioner; heartily indorsing the latter's conduct of the bureau and denouncing the bitter and malignant criticisms of the press upon his official conduct.

criticisms of the press upon his official conduct.

Gen. Barnum of New York offered a substitute, to the effect that, notwithstanding the assault of an unfriendly press, the encampment declared its belief in the integrity of Tanner and its approval of his efforts to do all for soldiers and sailors that the law will allow.

Campbell of Kansas agreed with Barnum, and said: "For 15 years we have been declaring, and others have uttered the sentiment, that the country can never pay the debt due to the old soldiers, but Corporal Tanner is the first officer that has made that sentiment a practical reality. I believe it the duty of this encampment to sustain him in working out that sentiment. We should make our indorsement strong enough. If Tanner is dishonest or has done any criminal act we will find it out when the investigating committee, now at work, makes its report.

of Tanner's enemies. It is not his enemies but his friends that are investigating him. We should not try to force the Administration to suspend this investigation. This encampment knows nothing of the details of Tanner's work, and cannot pass judgment upon it. If we pass the original resolution and the Committee of Investigation should exonerate him, the opposition press would say the Administration did not dare oppose the Grand Army of the Republic, and would have good reason for it. d would have good reason for it.
Recess was here taken until 3 p.m.

When the convention came to grader the morning, Dr. Cranfill of Waco, Tex., move that a committee be appointed to invest gate the mental condition of Col. Shepan and J. T. Stark of Orange, Tex., seconds the motion, which was promptly ruled of order.

The remainder of the morning session was devoted to the reading of papers.

In the afternoon T. H. Eddridge again brought up the Shepard matter, saying the southern delegates had decided the should Col. Shepard further address to convention, they would not attend to meeting.

THE WORLD'S PAIR. Hold It.

New York, Aug. 22.—[By the Associated Press.] Among Mayor Grant's mail today relative to the projected world's fair was a letter from W. C. Garrand, secretary of the Illinois State Board of Agriculture. It was written in reply to a note asking his recommendation of Joseph Reall as a committee man. Mr. Garrand says: "I must say that you seem to be laboring under a false impression as to the location of the world's fair of 1892. Out-here in the West we have already located the great international exposition at the city of Chicago, and we are waiting only for Congress to assemble to ratify our good work. Mr. Hugh J. Grans will, like myself, be a humble visitor and spectator at the coming exposition, and I promise you that when he returns to Manhattan Island he will not regret having visited Chicago and the greatest exposition the world ever held."

Los Angeles, are hardly fit subjects of comparison.

Mayor Hazard told me today that the South Side Irrigation Company had never made any such proposition to the city as its stated in the evening paper.

What confidence can we have in this Council; after the way in which they have manipulated contracts and options, we cannot tell what kind of a contract may be made tomorrow, and surely not after tomorrow if this present scheme is adopted. Will it help us to spread abroad in business circles—in the money centers where capital must come from—the fact that we have mortgaged out city to within $20,000 of the limit? That other improvements must wait; that we are next door to the position of the southern cities that, after the war, had to disorganize to escape their indebtedness?

Who can say that the sewers will be turned, having left mounted men to remain in the vicinity. As it is known that the abducted girl is with him, it is thought that will be let to shift for herself should he be hard pressed, and from her a narration of the country surrounding where he was last seen is well adapted for hiding, and every ravine in the neighborhood an easily be converted into a place of refuge, and unless he be starved out he will yet elude the vigilance of the officers.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following persons yesterday: John H. Brunworth, native of Illinois, aged 28, to Ernstine Friederich, native of Germany, aged 23. Vicente Salamantes, native of California, aged 26.

permit me to read to you the very last clause in it:

"The covenants herein expressed shall be binding upon the heirs, administrators and assigns of said first party, and upon the successors and assigns of the city of Los Angeles." It is a pretty good option, I should think, for which Mr. Rose is now willing to take $12,500, "Provided only that I (Rose) be given the preference to purchase fifty inches or such less amount as I may require of the sewage at the regular rates to be established by the city.

Is that the way Mr. Rose surrenders his right to the sewage? He does it by receiving $12,500, and we are to let him have the sewage anyway. It does seem to me if we ought not to bind ourselves with any agreement that compels us to keep this sewer open if we do not desire to do so, but must if we dispose of any to anyone else.

"Another answer to this objection is this Should the Council proceed to operate under this option it is our opinion that the clause authorizing Rose to reënter and possess said land in the event the city should not supply the stipulated amount of sewage, would depend for its efficacy upon the question whether the city were at fault."

Think of it! It a any time the city is at fault then Rose is entitled to reënter and take possession of the sewer. A forfeture follows. This is an answer to my objections.

like the Golden Gate Park."

When did I say anything of the kind?
Not in my message, certainly.

"The Mayor is a member of the Gun Club." Not quite. I was until I saw by the papers that the club was to receive $10,000 from the city. I then declined to own any stock in the club, and assigned the same to the Hon. E. E. Spence with directions to him to pay the same to the Orphans' Home. This whole address is written in so untrue and ungentiemanly a manner that I may be pardoned when I say I believe the object in making that statement was to attract attention to that fact shd to throw odium, if possible, on me. And you see you are even wrong in that. Nearly every statement contained in this reinstrable address you have not had the manhood to quote one solitary sentence contained in any message, because if you had it would have shown the faisity of ad to throw odium, if d you see you are early every statement irkable address is un-address you have not note one solitary sen-y message, because if shown the falsity of the made about the appointed to answer on had it wo

Have not a large number of mechanics and general workmen of the city often experienced the fact that at least one of the Council, whose name appears signed to that circular, has been in the habit of hiring the cheapest labor he could get to do his building, putting on men to do a regular mechanic's work at $1 a day, when wages were from $2.50 to $2.75 per day, and thus turning out "snide" work, to impose upon an innocent purchaser?

Do you think a man that will do that himself would be over-zealous to tie up a fat contractor, particulafly if tie up a fat contractor, particulafly if it was made worth his while not to do so? Don't be deceived in this matter; vote intelligently, vote honestly, vote without the influence of boodle, and vote for postarite.

The Tribune of today claims to have destroyed the effect of Mayor Hazard's bombshell by having secured the right of way from Mr. Rose for $12,500. Can't the Tribune see that Mr. Rose is still ahead? The interest on that money at the usual rates will annually pay for more water than he requires. But the Tribune also attacks the Mayor in his official relation. The writer has mingled among the voting people of the city for the last two weeks discussing the bond question, and he has never heard a word of condemnation against the Mayor, but on the contrary, that he was the most honest man in the city government. On the other hand, he has heard hundreds says they wanted the sewer and wanted to vote for the bonds, but they were afraid to trust the Council to handle that sum of money. That is the plain situation of facts.

tion to enter a complaint against Stein. Manning had a bad cut on the side of his face when he was brought to the station, and after it was attended to by the physician he was released. Manning says that he had been drinking, but that he was not drunk. He said that he was on his way home Friday night, walking in the middle of the street, when he was approached by a man, who struck him with a pair of brass "knucks." knocking him down. He was then robbed of $7.55 in money and a gold chain and silver Elgin watch, his name being engraved on the back of the timepiece. Manning says that he laid on the ground for half an hour, unable to get up and calling for help, and that Stein finally put in an appearance, and he was taken to the station, he not knowing he was to be locked up. Manning further says that he told Stein that the man who robbed Stein was over in a lumber pile near by, but that he made no effort to catch him. The police authorities have promised to look up the matter, and try and recover the stolen property.

Los Angeles, Aug. 28.—[To the Editor of The Times.] If the Times people have any desire to correct abuses, expose crime, show it up in its true light and show the criminal the difference between vice and virtue, with don't should be more than the tile of the contract of the county of the county in the county of the now, whether we will build the sewer from the courty road, across Rose and the Gun Clutter on one of the other routes surveyed. We have our choice, and can select the one which will prove the cheapest and best, and, should we take the Gun Club property, and desire to cross Rose's property on any other line than the one designated in this contract, we can condemn a right of way. Should it be deemed better and cheaper to pay Rose in gold coin for a right of way than to pay him with sewage, and should we take neither the Rose or Gun Club propositions, we can condemn across any property we desire. The contract is not in accordance with the one I drew up, but was presented by Mr. Rose, who stated that he was giving us a three years' option for nothing, and thought he should have the right to dictate the terms.

This contract was publicly read in the Council at its meeting of July 22d, approved, and the Clerk ordered to sign it on behalf of the city, and I think it was unjust to the Council, Engineer, Clerk and myself for the Mayor to attempt to lead the public to believe that an onerous contract had been secretly made by the Council by which the city was bound up with a lot of conditions from which it could not escape. Respectfully, C. McFARLAND, City Attorney.

City Attorney.

COMBINED storm and sewer drains are emned by all eminent sanitarians shall have plenty of diphtheris en these great elongated cesspools erate their sewer gas. For nine months in the year they will pour vile odors out of each opening. How are we going to flush them in summer We cannot spare water from the reservoirs for that purpose.

OVER half a million dollars to dum sewage into the Los Angeles River in winter-for they tell us now that only 850,000 of this is for storm drains—and $440,000 to carry sewage to Mr. Rose and the ocean in winter and summerthat makes about a million, in order to hrow away a valuable fertilizer, that owners of sandy, porous soil, a few miles south of town, are crying out for, and which we could undoubtedly get them to take at the city limits. Brilliant financial scheme, that!

In a communication to the Herald. Mr. Potts shows that when the pro ed sewer system was fully carried out and all the money spent, that four-fifths of all the area of the city would be left out in the cold, and that those as left out are settled principally small lot-owners and poor men, and the very sections of the city that ers the worst, and the place all the danger from cesspools from, not only to the people in sections, but to all the people of

THE HOUR HAS COME!

The time for discussion on the sewer question has passed, and the time for action has serived Citizens are now pretty thoroughly informed regarding the facts of the case, and most of them have made up their minds upon which side to vote. It would be useless to produce further long arguments at this late hour. We shall confine ourselves to a brief summary of the chief reasons which should lead all good citizens to vote "No" today. The four main objections to the sewer system for which we are asked to vote are these:

1. It is extravagant.

2. It is in great part unnecessary. 3. It is objectionable from a sanitary point of view.

4. It will result in long delay, and possibly in ultimate defeat.

The system is an extravagant one estimated to cost $1,280,000, but which would propably cost much more before completion, as few public works are ever brought within their estimated cost. Even at the price named, however, it will cost more than three times as much as is necessary to give us all the essential features of the projected system. It is further extravagant be cause it does not make any provision for the economical selling of the bonds or the letting of the contracts in such manner as to secure a healthy compe tition between contractors. The interior system of intercepting sewers which is all we at present need, is estimated to cost $332,000. This would bring the sewage to the city boundary, where we could without doubt get some land-owners to take it and conduct it in pipes to their land; but even supposing that we should have to pipe of such work would not exceed $150,-000, making a total of $482,000, as against $1,280,000, to which must be added a large sum for rights of way.

The system is in great part unnecessary. There is no need to pay $508,000 to conduct mingled storm-water and sewage into the river in winter, and $440,000 to carry sewage twelve miles to the ocean all the year round. There are people south of the city who are willing to take the sewage and handle t summer and winter.

The system is objectionable from sanitary point of view, because all sanitary authorities agree that it is a very bad practice to combine storm and sewage drains. When this is done they become simply elongated cesspools, reeking with filth and vomiting forth deadly sewer gas at every open ing. If such is the case in places where it rains at frequent intervals furing the whole year, what might we expect from such death-breeding devices in a warm climate, where no rain falls during seven months of the year? The "pestilence" which advocates of ing would then undoubtedly become a of sewage by storm and sewage drains into the river in the northern part of the city is a very bad scheme. This it would gradually lodge in the sandy river bed in depressions and stagnant pools, creating a nuisance and breeding disease. Again, the proposed ocean outfall is in the direction whence the wind clows toward the city almost conois, came out yesterday with a special tinuously. In place of health-giving breezes from the ocean, we should then have death-dealing breezes laden with the odor of sewer gas. In short, it is safe to predict that the construction of the sewer system, for which we are asked to vote today, would greatly increase our now remarkably low deathrate, and thus rob Los Angeles of its chief charm as a health resort. Finally, the dumping of the sewage into the ocean at the point proposed would go a long way toward ruining our most

> The system will result in long delay, and possibly in ultimate defeat, because injunction suits will at once be commenced. The people of Santa Monica have already given notice that they will contest the dumping of the sewage at Ballona to the utmost of on some of the money which will be their power. A similar notice has let loose if ever the bonds are sold. 25,000 feet of frontage. Some of circumstances-fighting the battle of these suits would be brought in the the people without courts. They would drag along on appeal, if not granted at first, and thus being carried from one court to another, years would elapse before work could be commenced, even supposing that an injunction were not ultimately made perpetual, as it most probably would be. Such are the chief reasons which should induce every citizen, whether capitalist, professional man, business man, mechanic, or laborer, who is interested in the health, progress and prosperity of Los Angeles, to go to the polls today and vote "No."

Above all, let it be most clearly understood that the statement made by the sewer organs that the defeat of the bonds means no sewers, is a groundless statement, invented and circulated for the purpose of deceiving the voters.

scheme; perhaps more so, as it is fair of the construction of who oppose the bonds have the true interests of the city more at heart.

A vote "No" is a vote for the early commencement and completion of a practicable, efficient, healthy and economical system of sewers. A vote "Yes" is a vote for extravagance, delay and, possibly, ultimate defeat, or, in case of success against injunctions, of increased death rate, high taxes and confiscation of much property, before the real sewering of the city is completed, this being only the commence ment, and mostly confined to those sections of the city inhabited by the

THE TIMES is as much interested in the welfare, healthfulness and progress of the city as is any voter. We would not advise the voting down of these bonds were we not thoroughly and sincerely of the belief that such course is the best for the community. We emphatically advise each of our readers to go to the polls today and vote "No." It will be a righteous ballot.

A BETTER SEWER PLAN FORTH-

For many days and weeks past serius consideration has been given in certain official and business quarters to the important matter of devising a new and better plan of sewering the city. In view of the expected defeat of the sewer bonds and the condemnation of the Ballona route, more than one member of the City Council, besides many thoughtful citizens, having the best interests of the city at heart have had under discussion, quietly and informally, an alternative plan to accomplish the desired object-a plan as in outline only, but vet can be perfected and put into it three or four miles further, the cost operation without any consider of such work would not exceed $150,- able loss of time. We can con considerfidently state, by authority, that persons in official positions, who are in favor of the bonds have, in view of their possible defeat, been giving careful consideration to this new plan knowing full well that it will be the duty and the interest of the City Council to promptly set about the work of formulating a fresh schem of sewerage.

Councilman Bonsall, who is oppos to the bonds, has conceived and is ad vocating the plan of a commission to ake the whole matter under consider ation-a commission of say fifteen members, to be composed somewhat as follows: Three engineers; Three city officials; Three business men: Three physicians, and Three lawyers.

From such a commission, carefully properly constituted, the public would have a right to expect excellent work. There is scarcely a doubt but it could succeed in devising an efficient, economical and satisfactory plan, which would meet the approval of the peo

Much of quirements of the city in that regard. The members recognize the fact that they are the servants of the people, and, of course, will desire to meet the wishes of the people, when made known.

Let this matter receive the early consideration of sagacious citizens.

BATTLE-ARE READY?

[The following appeal to voters is repro ed from yesterday's issue. ! We urge every opponent of the sewer bonds to perform his duty at the polls today.

Do not deceive yourselves by ove confidence in the result, but bear in mind that the bond advocates are organized and in possession of the chinery of the city government, including the street department, the police force-most of the municipal offices, in fact—and that there is powerful incentive on their part to carry the bonds. The more need, then, is there that every opponent of the bonds should ot only turn out and vote himself, but that he should arge his neighbor to do the same, seeing to it that he is supplied with a ticket reading, "Against the Issuing of Bonds." Organize and do good work at the

One of the chief points made by the plungers" now-a-days, in favor of the The citizens who oppose the extravagant Ballona scheme are just as anxious to secure an efficient system of sewers as are those who are so anxious to have us vote for their pet. That is by no means the main object Ballona scheme, is that it would furnish plenty of employment to working men. While it is certainly a most designable that the Man beeded him not, and presently came along an Honest Man, who carted the Rubbish away for such idle men as are in our midst, Moral: Vote Phop on the Sewer land an Old Fogy!

to presume, judging from the words and actions of each party, that those who copies the bonds have the true supplies work to laborers and others is a desirable, though strictly secondary, feature of the enterprise. We don't want to spend three-quarters of a million more than is ne essary on an extravagant, impracticable and harmful scheme in order that contractors and favored insiders may grow rich on the noney that is wrung i from taxpayersworkingmen and capitalists alike. What we want is the best sewer sys tem that can be had, at a price that it s worth. That is what the citizens will vote for, after the bonds are de-

THE boodle organs, having been downed on every other point, now confine their arguments almost entirely to showing the large amount of money which would be distributed among laboring men and merchants, if the $1,280,000 were voted. They are, in fact, trying to bribe voters to help them fleece the city. Our citizens are not only too honorable to take part in any such nefarious scheme, but are too inelligent to be caught by any such shallow device. The boodlers would grab so much of the money that the contractors would have to get the cheapest labor they could find, and then, when we awoke from our financial debauch, we should find ourselves semi-bankrupt, and far worse off in every way than before.

Much is being made by the boodle organs of the fact that Mr. Rose has now offered to take a lump sum of $12,500 for right of way across his land, in place of 50 inches of "perpetual" water. As we pointed out esterday, this change of front at the last moment is virtually a concession of the fact that the contract with Mr. Rose is a thing to be ashamed of. Apart from that, the situation is not mproved, but rather made worse by his change. If Mr. Rose is to get 512,500 for a right of way, how mi will the other land-owners want, 25 of whom recently gave notice that they would fight to the bitter end the laying mant, 25 of of the sewer in front of their property?

THE Express writes of the "starving and half-naked children of our work-This, with the "denselyingmen." populated, disease-breeding" working men's sections; the hundreds of cases of diphtheria and typhoid; the utter absence of sewers, but prevalence of sewer gas, and the impending epidemic, makes an untrue picture which these boodle organs have been indus triously painting during the past few weeks, and from which we shall hear to our sorrow long after the sewe election has been lost sight of. If visitors avoid the most healthful city in the United States, we shall have these reckless journals to thank.

RUDOLPH HERRING, the expert engineer, brought from Philadelphia by the Council, distinctly, advocated the use of sewage for irrigation, gave only a qualified indorsement of an outfall sewer, believing it in the become an ultimate necessity because of the increasing value of land for suburban residence purposes, distinctly disapproved of combining storm-water design and sewer and advected. drains and sewers, and advocated small sewers. Mr. Fred Eaton knows better.

A WITTY friend of ours, who studies medicine semi-occasionly, has been worried considerably in attempting to diagnose the sewer-bond case. He has brought out regarding it. thed one conclusion, however, and that is, the case is rather critical: the treatment must be heroic, and any political Esculapian who monkeys with indicted for malpractice.

AMUSEMENTS.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.-There was the largest house since the opening night of the week assembled last evening to witness the performance of Masks and Faces, and the bright, sparkling comedy for which Charles Reade gets the credit of anthorship but in which Tom Taylor had no small share, was received with keen appreciation and emreceived with keen appreciation and emphatic applause.

Rose Coghlan as the versatile "Peg Woffington" was eminently at home in the character, and indicated with artistic touch the various phases of feeling shown by the people's favorite in her succession of tri-umphs, disappointments and surprises. It was a brilliant performance, best perhaps in its revelation of the asperitles caused by contact with the fashionable pretenders of the day, and also in a certain metallic hardness in the delivery of the sarcastic speeches with which the gay crowd were severally extinguished. The tenderness of feeling exhibited toward the tenderness of feeling exhibited toward the poor "Triplet" and his starving family, and the final touch of softened human nature with which the actress paves the way to a reconciliation between "Vane" and his innocent young wife were finely rendered. The "Triplet" of E. T. Webber, the most important character in the piece next to "Peg," was especially good, a carefully studied performance and effective in makeup and general detail.

The "Sir Charles Pornander" of J. T. Sullivan was tairly good, but Mr. Leonard was overweighted in the character of "Vane." The piece will be repeated to-night. (Signed)

AN OPEN LETTER.

Los ANGELES, Aug. 29, 1889, To whom it may concern: The Los An geles Tribune of this date editorially charges that I sought to make a corrup bargain with Capt. J. Frankenfield, Presi dent of the City Council, in connection with the Police Commission and the sewer

The charge is false in its entirety and in all its parts. The Los Angeles Tribune, as usual, does not tell the truth.

The facts are these:

Some months ago I had an interview (by appointment previously made by me in the Council chamber) with Presider Frankenfield. The interview was held in the directors' room of the California Bank It was on the police question, and wa amicable. No other person was in the room with us at any time during the inter-

At that interview I took ground that in the then disturbed, disorganized and unsatisfactory condition of affairs in the police department, it would be for the public in terest if the Council would remove the en tire Police Commission, then consisting of Messrs. Knox, Dexter and Lindley. What I then said in urging this co was substantially what THE TIMES had already said more than once. It was not a confidential communication that I made to Capt. Frankenfield. He did not, however, agree with me, de claring, in substance, that he could no afford to break with his associates in the Council on that issue; and he criticised and complained of the Mayor in his relation with that body.

The subject of sewers or sewer-bonds wa not discussed in detail at the interview, but only incidentally alluded to. The whole burden of the conversation was in refer ence to pelice matters. Though the inte view was private, there was nothing said by me that I would fear to have made pub

No proposition, offer or suggestion wa made by me to the effect that in consideration of the dismissal of the Police Commis sion, either I or THE TIMES would sup port the sewer bonds. No threat, "distinct" or implied, was made by me that unless the Commiss were dismissed THE TIMES would "fight the bonds." No offer or proposition of any kind was nade by me that THE TIMES would support the bonds upon any condition. Capt. Frankenfield did not "indignantly reply": "Do you think I am an unmitigated scoundrel, to become a party to such a transaction?" He did not then, or at any time, utter similar language to me, nor any language whatever of a hostile or unfriendly nature touching this subject.

The charge made by the Los Angeles Tribune cannot be "substantiated by third party,"nor by a first party. The see party, Capt. Frankenfield himself, will not substantiate it. There was no third party

The editor of the Los Angeles Trib in whom the truth does not abide, is invited to bring forward his "third party." If that individual has any existence in fact, and any knowledge of that interview, it is a keyhole knowledge, and is not correct if at variance with the statements herein

While engaged in writing this open letter I have not yet seen Capt. Frankenfield regarding this matter; but I am willing to trust him, as an honorable man, to make public a true statement of the interview. and I have no fear of any fact that can be

We hold opposite views on the sewer question, but I have no apprehension that the President of the Council will seek to gain support for the bonds by encouraging the "Rose-water treatment" should be the circulation of unmixed falsehoods such as those uttered by the Los Angele THERE are so many great difficulties Tribune in its last desperate strait.

bedges by making the following admissi-"As a matter of justice to Mr. Franken fied it should be stated that this information does not come from him, and that he knows nothing of this article."

As I am finishing my statement, Capt. Frankenfied hands me the following letter. which speaks for itself:

Los Angeles, Aug 29, 1889. Col. H. G. Otis-Dear Sir: In reply to your request relative to our private inter-view some time ago, and referred to [edito-cially] in the Tribune of this day, I desire to say that no offer was made by you that for the consideration of the re of the Police Commission by the Council, The Times would support the sewer bonds; and no threats of any kind were made by you. But what you did say was that if the Council de-stred to win the condiidence of the people and carry the bond proposition, the Commission should be removed; and upor that question we could not agree, as claimed there was no cause for the r think that I am an unmitigated scoundre to become a party to such a transaction? In short, there were no unpleasant remarks or ill feeling on my part. J. FRANKENFIELD.

1 will add that if any respectable number of reputable and unbiased citizens, who know me, can be found to believe this pre posterous charge of the Tribune's, or who will take the word of its disreputable editor against mine in any matter, I will agree to vote for the sewer bonds tomorrow Ballona route, Rose contract, Gun Club

THE TROMBONE "BOMBSHELL." Prompt Extinguisher by Presi

After Capt. Frankenfield read the Tribune yesterday morning, he was not long in making known his sentiments in regard to the article headed "Bribery," associating his name with that of Col. Otis of THE TIMES, in an alleged deal, involving the Police Com-mission and the sewer-bond proposition. He did not consider it n sary to make any great demonstration over the allegation of the desperate organ, nor to multiply words, but simply said to those who asked him about the charge that it was untrue, adding in an interview with Thomas A is, "I do not deal in such stuff," athorizing that message to be to Col. Otis. Subsequently he his letter, printed above.

The wharingers submitted to the dock companies and strikers a plan for settlement of the question at issue, which included a proposal to make the American clauses in the bills of lading inoperative as far as concerned the wharingers and gramary-keepers. Representatives of the companies declined this and are preparing a manifesto in which they will declare they will only pay 5d an hour. The workmen at Greenwich have struck.

A mass meeting of 4000 strikers was held today. John Burns addressed them, predicting that their demands would be acceded to today. The wharingers have offered to employ dock men on independent docks, but the proposition has not been accepted. The strike is seriously affecting the northern coal trade.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29.—[By the Associated Press.] The Chronicle says that at the Atlantic and Pacific offices nothing is known of the story that the Southern Pa-cific Cempany is going to take the California Central and Southern lines, now controlled by the Santa Fé system.

The Examiner quotes an official of the transcoutinental line as saying: "I would not be surprised to hear within a few weeks that the Southern Pacific has leased the California Central and California Southern roads. I hardly think that Stanford would want to embrace the Atlantic and Pacific in a constant that may be made of the southern want to embrace the Atlantic and Pacific in any lease that may be made of the southern branches of the Santa Fé. A St. Louis and San Francisco syndicate owns a half-interest in the road, and it is generally understood that the syndicate has the upper hand in the management. The impression exists that Jay Gould is behind the St. Louis and San Francisco, and if this is true, and if a connecting link between the Atlantic and Pacific, and the St. Louis and San Francisco, from Albuquerque, N. A Method in Its Madness.

A Method in Its Madness.

| Santa Monica Outlook.]

The Tribune persists in harping upon the statement that Los Angeles needs sewerage, a proposition which no one disputes. The object in repeating this admitted fact is to draw public attention from the disputed point that it is not proposed to sewer the city by either the best route or the most economical method. The bulk of the facts and arguments adduced by that paper are simply to enforce a universally-admitted necessity, while a voluminous tirade of windy misstatement is employed to misrepresent and a voluminous tirade of windy misstatement is employed to misrepresent and befog the lucid exposure of the inefficient plan proposed. We believe any candid, fair-minded reader will admit that this is the Tribune's attitude on this all-absorbing question. There is method in this madness; and it would seem there is a substantial reason for it.

A Rousing Meeting at the Court

The workingmen who are opposed to the sewer bonds met at the old courthouse last night and discussed the sewer bonds in an enthusiastic manner. They seemed to be thoroughly aroused on the important question, and if one can judge from the arguments brought for-ward they do not intend to place them-selves in the hands of a lot of boodlers selves in the hands of a lot of boodlers who never have and never will do anything for the working classes. The sentiments brought out were frequently applauded, and it is safe to say that almost all of the voters present are against the sewer bonds.

Carl Browne, who made a short speech, became somewhat excited and used hoodlumish language, which brought one of the audience to the platform, and a fight would have followed had it not been for the interference of officers. Browne struck at the man, and was taken to the police staman, and was taken to the police station, but he was released for the time

Cable Laid. The cable on the Grand avenue extension was successfully laid last night, under the supervision of Gennight, under the supervision of General Superintendent Robinson. This is the longest cable that the system has yet placed in position, and the fact everything passed off so smoothly speaks well for the organization of the working force. Forty horses were required to haul the cable, which were furnished by the California Truck Company.

MORALES AT LARGE.

TRUE STORY ABOUT THE CAP-TURE OF THE GIRL.

Several Reasons Why He Must Have Shot Mr. Charles-Strange Conduct of Officers at San Juan -His Escape to the Cornfield-Sheriff Aguirre to the Front.

A gentleman who is thoroughly reliable came up from San Juan yester-day and as he was there at the time of the killing of Charles, and during three or four days just previous to the shooting, he is full of the story. He is quite certain that Morales, the outlaw, is the murderer, and he says nine-tenths of the people of San Juan are of the same opinion.

about sundown on the night of the shooting.

A few hours after that Mr. Charles, his wife and the lady were playing cards, when they heard a noise at the stable and Mr. Charles walked out. When he reached the stable door he lit a match, and stepped inside. A pistol shot rang out and almost immediately Mr. Charles fell. The shooter rushed out of the stable and made his escape.

Shortly before Charles died he was asked if he hiad any enemies in town and he answered that they were all enemies. The the before think this a little strawge, for he has lived there 35 years, and while the people do not like him, he has no enemies who would be liable to shoot him. His statement to the effect that he believed his stepson shot him, is not believed, for while the boy did not like him he had thousands of chances to kill him, and never by word or action displayed any desire to make away with him.

Another strange feature in the case is that Morales has not been seen at San Juan since.

Sheriff Aguirre returned from San Juan yesterday. While down theremartin sent word to Morales that he is willing to meet him single-handed at any time and place he may name. Martin has recaptured several of the horses stolen by Morales, and is confident that he will get the fellow in case he returns to this county.

SCOTT CASE.

JURY SWORN TO TRY THE AL LEGED MURDERER AGAIN.

The Story of the Killing-A Bloody Scene in a Shanty on Alameda Street-The Husband of the Mur dered Woman Shows Up.

The Charles Scott murder case was called in Judge Cheney's department of the Superior Cort day before yesterday, but a jury was not secured until yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. It will be remembered that the defendant and a woman named Anna le Brun, who were living together in a little shanty off of Alameda, were found on the morning of April 12th in bed. The woman was dead, and a shastly wound in her head horrified the lives the discovery. The lives treet, $1.48; F. W. The woman was dead, and a ghastly wound in her head horrified the persons who made the discovery. The defendant was by her side, and he too, had an ugly wound in his head, but he still breathed. A pistol was found between the two bodies. At first it was believed that they had quarreled and that the man had shot her and them attempted to take his own life, but as soon as Scott was able to take he made as statement to the effect that he and his mistress attended the circus on the night of the tragedy and retired to bed quite late. After he had been asleep some time, he did not know how long, he was awakened by the report of a pistol, and a flash lit up the room. The next second another shot was figed, and he knew no more. He thought not satisfy the District Attorney, who could not understand the presence of the sifect that the two had quarreled frequently on account of her husband. Le Brun. Scott and the woman lived together about three months. The woman was led to be lieve that scott was wealthy, and when she discovered that he was not telling the truth she became dissatisfied, and the two were frequently heard quarreling. The woman wrote several letters to Le Brun, in which she expressed a desire to return to him. Scott got hold of one of these letters and a violent quarrel followed, and on the very evening of the shooting their neighbors overheard them quarreling, and someone heard Scott was the led to be leve that scott was the led to be return to him. Scott got held of one of these letters and a violent quarrel followed, and on the very evening of the shooting their neighbors overheard them quarreling, and someone heard Scott say that he led to the same to the street shout be kept in proper revening of the shooting their neighbors overheard them quarreling, and someone heard Scott say that he led to the street should be kept in proper to Le Brun, in which she expressed a desire to return to him. The prosecution was represented by Deputy District Attorney Hardesty, and the defense by Grant & Bower.

and the defense by Grant & Bower.

The most significant feature of the present case is the fact that Le Brun, the real husband of the dead woman, is in the city and will be put on the stand on the part of the prosecution to show that he was not here at the time of the murder and could not have been a party to the crime, as is claimed by Scott.

[Toronto (Canada) Empire, Aug. 18th.]
D. Mitchell McDonald, the Central Bank director, who skipped rather than face the music when that rotten institution went to pieces, is working the good people of Los Angeles for all he is worth. The Los Angeles for all he is worth. The Los Angeles Tribune of July 20th says:
Judge D. M. McDonald, of this city, will be the speaker at the evangelistic meeting for men only in the new building of the Young Men's Christian Association on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all young men.

This is a piece of refreshing news to the many Torontonians who dropped their "little all" in the now defunct a Central Bank. In all probability the Tribune will soon be able to inform the people of Los Angeles that McDonald has turned "preacher." He's making a good start in that direction. McDonald ought to go bury himself in a California mud heap. There are many people in Toronto today who would give a good deal to meet the "Judge" on Canadian soil. If such a thing ever did occur McDonald would, without a doubt, crack rocks in company with that sleek-tongued fakir, Roland israel Gideon Barnet, in the Kingston penitentiary for several years to come.

ORIGINALITY THE TRUE SOURCE OF SUCCESS.

Our Alm is To Be Original and Foremost in Every Enter-prise - Next Monday's Sale.

PEOPLE'S STORE,

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 20, 1889.

Active originality is the true source of success; to be original in all things, to be foremost in every enterprise, to originate popular ideas is the object, aim and endeavor of the People's Store. That it requires ceaseless and tireless attention is a patter of course. Nothess attention is a matter of course. Noth ing can be accomplished by moping idly around, fanning to keep cool, and a screen at the front door to keep the flies out. Keep a moving and don't give the fies a chance to perch. By so doing you will become active, and being active you'll become industrious, which will nerve you on to success,

The People's Store has more original ideas than any establishment in the State. They are now preparing a monster idea of original con-ception for next Monday's sale. The sale will celipse anything yet attempted. Nothing has been left undone to make this the banner at-

BRONCHITIS.

Acute Bronchitis. Acute Bronchitis.

This is an inflammation of the mucous membrane lining the brenchial tubes, and is one of the most common of all the pulmonary diseases. It is a dangerous disease, as it prevents the oxygenation of the blood, and in many cases, particularly after it passes into the chronic stage, the substance of the lungs becomes seriously involved, giving rise to what is very properly called bronchial consumption. In the acute form there is a sense of tightness or pressure across the chest, with considerable wheezing, severe cough and expectorat on. This is at first a white glairy mucus, which after a time becomes purulent. The patient in some cases is obliged to sit up in bed, the oppression across the chest is so great, and the skin is clammy and prostration rapidly sets in, and in fatal cases there will be muttering delirium, come and death.

Chronic Bronchitis.

Chronic Bronchitis.

Chronic Bronchitis is also an inflammation of the mucous membrane of bronchial tubes. But this form more often occurs later in life. When a cold settles on the lungs, the disease either ends in bronchitis or pueumonia. If it ends in bronchitis it usually passes off as a cold in the chest, and still the patient does not feel entirely well. He feels tired and languid, and is incapable of taking his usual amount of exercise, and experiences a shortness of breath, with more or less warmth in the palms of his hands. Soon after this a couga appears, accompanied by an expectoration of thick mucous, followed by an expectoration of thick mucous, followed by an expectoration of official and strength, and night sweats continue, when the patient assumes all the appearance of having a genuine case of consumption. But this is simply catarrh of the lungs, are atterstages of the disease the mucous membrane of the larger bronchial tube softens, while in the smaller tubes and air cells of the lungs the mucous membrane becomes congested and inflamed. There are no cavities or tubercles in the lungs, but merely wasting away of the larger bronchial tubes, and death takes place from obstruction of the bronchial tubes and air cells of the lungs. The patient dies from exhaustion and suffocation, being unable to expectorate the mucous which accountiates in the passage leading to the lungs, which his one cases is sticky and small in quantity, but more commonly copious, of a light airs wor yellowish green. Oftentimes streaks of blood make their appearance in the mucous, and aft times there is a diagree able smell. Persons thus afflicted are very label to the expectorate is a diagree able smell from the continue of the two forms are entirely different. Inhesiation is the only system which with with the other we must stimulate a healthy action.

This will convince us of the necessity of fully understanding the system of Medicated C. A. SUMNER & CO., in the other we must summand a cotion.

This will convince us of the necessity of fully understanding the system of Medicated Inhalations in the treatment of the various diseases of the pulmonary organs, for when properly applied there is no system of medicine to be compared to it.

Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedices at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inocarenience or hindrance from business whatever.

inconvenience or hindrance from business whatever. I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless, unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations als us in discolving the mueus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing can do with the same very best reference from those already
